

KEVIN CLAYTON JOINS ENERGY CAPITAL PARTNERS AS PARTNER AND HEAD OF INVESTOR RELATIONS

SHORT HILLS, NJ – May 1, 2018 – Energy Capital Partners, (“ECP” or “the firm”) a leading private equity and credit investment firm focused on North America’s energy infrastructure, announced today that Kevin Clayton has joined the firm as Partner and leader of its Investor Relations team.

Doug Kimmelman, Senior Partner of ECP, said, “We are delighted to welcome Kevin to ECP. We have known him for many years and he brings tremendous private equity and credit investor relations experience to our firm. We look forward to benefitting from his deep expertise in investor relations and fundraising and adding it to ECP’s robust capabilities in these important areas.”

Clayton added, “I am excited to join ECP, a firm I have respected for its energy industry expertise and success in investing in energy assets over the past 13 years. I am looking forward to working with this already strong team as we further strengthen our relationships with ECP’s Limited Partners and help them achieve their investment goals.”

Clayton brings more than 30 years of marketing, management, fundraising and investor relations experience to his new position. He founded the Marketing and Client Relations department at Oaktree Capital Management, LP in 1995 at the firm’s inception, and managed and built the team into one of the most successful marketing and client relations teams in alternative investment management. Oaktree has over $100 billion in assets under management with more than 900 employees worldwide. He also served as a member of Oaktree’s Board of Directors and was Supervising Principal of Oaktree’s broker-dealer, OCM Investments, LLC, until his retirement from the firm in 2014. Prior to Oaktree, he worked for five years in the marketing and client relations area at Trust Company of the West and began his career at Chrysler Corporation.

Clayton most recently served as Interim President of Lehigh University in 2014-2015, and currently is Chair of Lehigh’s Board of Trustees. He is a member of the Board of Directors of Aquicore, the energy efficiency management company. Clayton received his Bachelor of Arts in government from Lehigh, and a Masters of Business Administration from St. Joseph’s University.
